

Cambridge University Department of Engineering
Centre for Sustainable Development
3rd Annual Lecture Series in Sustainable Development (2005)

2nd February

Engineers as honest brokers for sustainable development

Professor Roland Clift

(Centre for Environmental Strategy, Surrey University))

9th February

Capacity building for sustainable development

Professor Leo Jansen

(Delft University of Technology, Netherlands)

23rd February

Global warming and carbon capture, and political reality

Professor Andrew Palmer

(Cambridge University)

2nd March

Trade, Environment and Development: Issues, linkages, challenges and opportunities

Professor Paul Ekins

(Policy Studies Institute, London)

16th March

Practical Sustainable Development: the challenge of long term strategy in day to day Government

Nick Mabey

(The Prime Ministers Strategy Unit, London)

20th April

Information Technology for Sustainable Development

Professor Nazli Choucri

(MIT, Technology and Development Programme,
U.S.A)

Wednesday evenings, 5.30 pm for 6.00pm

Lecture Room 0; Cambridge University Engineering Department

For further details please contact Dr R.A. Fenner, Tel 01223 765626, E-mail raf37@eng.cam.ac.uk

Series supported by

RICS

